PART 1: GENERAL

1 Name

These Regulations are the Regulations on the Legislative Acts of Alatau City.

2 Date of enactment

These Regulations are enacted on the day they are adopted by the Council of Alatau City.

3 Commencement

These Regulations commence on the expiry of ten calendar days after the day of their publication on the web resource of the Administration of Alatau City.

4 Legislative authority

These Regulations are adopted by the Council under Article 36(5)(1) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.

5 Scope and application

These Regulations apply within the territory of the City of Alatau and, where expressly provided by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City or another applicable law, to the suburban zone of the City of Alatau.

These Regulations apply to the Administration, the Bodies of the Administration and, where relevant legal entities, persons, and govern to the preparation, enactment, interpretation, publication, amendment, suspension and repeal of Regulatory Legislative Acts.

6 The objectives of these Regulations

The objectives of these Regulations are to:

- (a) establish a transparent, coherent and predictable legislative framework for the Special Legal Regime of Alatau City;
- (b) ensure legal certainty, consistency and accessibility of Regulatory Legislative Acts;
- (c) promote good governance, regulatory quality and accountability; and
- (d) facilitate sustainable economic development and investment.

7 Interpretation

Schedule 1 contains definitions and other interpretative provisions used in these Regulations.

PART 2: SPECIAL LEGAL REGIME OF ALATAU CITY

Chapter 1 – Regulatory Legislative Acts

8 Competence of the Administration

- (1) The Administration has the authority to enact Regulatory Legislative Acts through the Bodies of the Administration.
- (2) The Bodies of the Administration are–
 - (a) the Council;
 - (b) the Regulatory Commission;
 - (c) the Chief Executive Officer; and
 - (d) Other Governing Bodies.
- (3) The authority of the Bodies of the Administration to enact Regulatory Legislative Acts derives from and is subject to:
 - (a) The Constitution of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
 - (b) the Constitutional Law on Alatau City;
 - (c) the Presidential Decree on Alatau City;
 - (d) the Regulations on the ACA Special Management Organization;
 - (e) the Regulations on the Regulatory Commission; and
 - (f) these Regulations.
- (4) Regulatory Legislative Acts must not conflict with the Constitution of the Republic of Kazakhstan and the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.

9 Matters within the competence of the Administration

- (1) Regulatory Legislative Acts should seek to achieve the purpose and the objectives of the Special Legal Regime set out in Articles 6 and 7 of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (2) Regulatory Legislative Acts must be consistent with the principles of the Special Legal Regime set out in Article 8 and as further provided for in Articles 9 to 16 of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (3) Without limiting the matters expressly assigned to the Administration by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City, Regulatory Legislative Acts may regulate matters within the competence of the Administration, including–
 - (a) state control and supervision;
 - (b) entrepreneurial activities, business licensing, operation of legal entities, regulatory licensing and permitting procedures;
 - (c) circulation of goods, works and services, standardisation and technical regulation;
 - (d) the tax regime, the customs regime, currency regulation and currency control;
 - (e) legislation, experimental legal regimes, legal regimes for non-state educational institutions and healthcare organisations;

- (f) the regulation of digital assets, digital facilities, digital data, digital records and digital interaction and service delivery;
- (g) environmental protection and subsoil use in Alatau City and its suburban zone;
- (h) the creative industry, gambling activities;
- (i) employment relations and the engagement of foreign workers, and the migration regime of foreign nationals and stateless people;
- (j) architectural, urban planning and construction activities, infrastructure, housing relations, real estate, residency and land relations including the land fund;
- (k) innovative urban mobility;
- (l) administrative offences, regulatory offences; and
- (m) any other matter falling within the functions and powers of the Administration under the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.

10 Matters outside the competence of the Administration

- (1) The Administration may not enact a Regulatory Legislative Act on a matter excluded from the Special Legal Regime under Article 4(3) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City, except to the extent expressly permitted by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (2) The Administration must not enact a Regulatory Legislative Act on a matter that the Constitutional Law on Alatau City reserves exclusively for the Maslikhat or the Akimat, except to the extent the Constitutional Law on Alatau City expressly permits the Administration to exercise it jointly with the Maslikhat or the Akimat.

11 Types of Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) The types of Regulatory Legislative Act capable of enactment by the Administration are Regulations, Rules and Orders.
- (2) A Regulatory Legislative Act may be enacted on a permanent or temporary basis subject to paragraph (3).
- (3) A Regulatory Legislative Act may be enacted on a temporary basis for any purpose permitted under Article 36(10) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (4) A temporary Regulatory Legislative Act may remain in effect until—
 - (a) a specified date;
 - (b) the occurrence of an event determining its termination; or
 - (c) it is suspended or repealed (see Article [●]).

12 Hierarchy of Regulatory Legislative Acts

Regulations, Rules, and Orders rank, in descending order of legal effect, as follows—

- (a) Regulations, whether enacted by the Council or by the Regulatory Commission under a delegation by the Council as per Article 13(3);
- (b) Rules; and

- (c) Orders.

13 Regulations

- (1) A Regulation must be adopted by a decision of the Council unless the Council has delegated to the Regulatory Commission its power to approve that Regulation in accordance with Article 22(6) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City and this Article.
- (2) The Council may not delegate its powers to enact certain Regulations if–
 - (a) the power is reserved to the Council in the Constitutional Law on Alatau City; or
 - (b) the Council has expressly reserved the approval of that Regulation to itself in the decision by which the relevant powers are delegated.
- (3) The Council may delegate to the Regulatory Commission its powers to enact all or certain Regulations in accordance with Article 22(6) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City for the purpose of promptly addressing matters within the remit of the Council.
- (4) A delegation by the Council must be made by a decision of the Council and must specify–
 - (a) the delegate;
 - (b) the Regulation or category of Regulations in respect of which approval authority is delegated;
 - (c) the term of the delegation; and
 - (d) any condition attached to the delegation.
- (5) A delegation may be for a specified period, in relation to a specified category of Regulations or for the purpose of approving a specified Regulation.
- (6) Regulations adopted by the Regulatory Commission on matters delegated to it by the Council–
 - (a) do not require separate approval by the Council; and
 - (b) shall have the same legal effect as a Regulation adopted directly by the Council.

14 Rules

- (1) A Rule must be enacted by a decision of the Regulatory Commission.
- (2) Subject to Article 14(3), the Regulatory Commission may enact a Rule if–
 - (a) the authority to enact the Rule is conferred by a Regulation; or
 - (b) the Rule is enacted to implement the Special Legal Regime and is within the authority of the Regulatory Commission to do so.
- (3) The Regulatory Commission must not enact a Rule where the Constitutional Law on Alatau City requires the matter to be dealt with by a Regulation or Order or reserves the matter or decision to the Council.
- (4) Where the operation of a Regulation depends on a Rule enacted pursuant to Article 14(2)(a) that will commence after the Regulation, the Regulation must, where necessary, contain transitional provisions sufficient to enable its effective operation until the Rule commences.

15 Orders

- (1) An Order must be made by the Chief Executive Officer.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), the Chief Executive Officer may make an Order within the powers conferred on the Chief Executive Officer by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City, the regulations governing the Administration or the Chief Executive Officer, or a Regulatory Legislative Act, including for the purpose of implementing the Special Legal Regime or enabling the Administration to perform its functions.
- (3) The Chief Executive Officer must not make an Order on a matter that is expressly reserved by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City to the Council, the Regulatory Commission, the Maslikhat or the Akimat.

16 The Principles of Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) Nothing in these Regulations affects the supremacy of the Constitution of the Republic of Kazakhstan or the Constitutional Law on Alatau City. The relationship between the legislation of Alatau City and other legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan is determined in accordance with the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (2) Subject to paragraphs (4) to (4), a Regulatory Legislative Act must be consistent with the Constitutional Law on Alatau City and any Regulatory Legislative Act having superior legal effect.
- (3) A Regulatory Legislative Act may amend, supplement, repeal or otherwise depart from a Regulatory Legislative Act of the same legal effect only if it expressly identifies the earlier Act or provision affected and the nature of the amendment, repeal or departure.
- (4) Where there is an inconsistency between two Regulatory Legislative Acts of differing legal effect, the Regulatory Legislative Act having superior legal effect prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 2 – Contents, Processes, and Publication

17 Contents of Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) A Regulatory Legislative Act must state—
 - (a) its name;
 - (b) whether it is a Regulation, Rule or Order;
 - (c) its date of enactment;
 - (d) its legislative authority under which it is adopted, namely—
 - (i) in the case of a Regulation, the decision of the Council adopting it or, where the power to adopt was delegated under Article 13(3), the decision of the Regulatory Commission;
 - (ii) in the case of a Rule, the decision of the Regulatory Commission; or
 - (iii) in the case of an Order, the decision of the Chief Executive Officer;
 - (e) a contents page, where appropriate having regard to the length and complexity of the Regulatory Legislative Act;
 - (f) its registry number; and

- (g) if it is an amendment of a prior Regulatory Legislative Act.
- (2) A Regulatory Legislative Act may state–
 - (a) its objective or purpose for enactment;
 - (b) the definitions of terms used in it;
 - (c) its date of commencement, if different from its date of enactment (see Article 26); and
 - (d) if it is a temporary Act, the date or event determining its termination (see Article 11(4)).

18 Structure of Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) A Regulatory Legislative Act must be divided into Articles which must be numbered sequentially throughout the Act.
- (2) Articles may be divided into–
 - (a) paragraphs which must be numbered consecutively using Arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses, (for example Article 5(1));
 - (b) subparagraphs which must be designated consecutively by lower-case letters enclosed in parentheses, (for example Article 5(1)(a)); and
 - (c) sub-subparagraphs which must be designated consecutively by lower-case Roman numerals enclosed in parentheses, (for example Article 5(1)(a)(i)).
- (3) A reference to a paragraph or subparagraph may, where the context permits, be made by reference to the relevant paragraph or subparagraph of the relevant Article.
- (4) A Regulatory Legislative Act may be divided into Parts and Chapters.
- (5) A Schedule to a Regulatory Legislative Act may be divided into paragraphs, subparagraphs, sub-subparagraphs, chapters and sections in the same manner as an article.
- (6) Schedules shall have the same legal effect as the body of the Regulatory Legislative Act unless expressly provided otherwise.
- (7) Each type of Regulatory Legislative Act must be in the form prescribed in the applicable Schedule of this Regulation.

19 Languages of Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) A Regulatory Legislative Act must be prepared and adopted in Kazakh, Russian and English in accordance with Article 37 of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (2) Regulatory Legislative Acts may be translated into other languages.

20 Continuity of prior legislation

- (1) Where a Regulatory Legislative Act is made pursuant to this Regulation and there is in force, immediately before its effective date, another legislative act of a Body of the Administration concerning the same subject matter, the Regulatory Legislative Act should, so far as practicable, preserve and continue the substantive effect of that prior legislative act.

- (2) The preservation, continuation or incorporation of a legislative act under paragraph (1) requires the approval of the Body of the Administration that made that legislative act.
- (3) Any subsequent Regulatory Legislative Act should supersede and replace the prior Regulatory Legislative Act by amending and restating it in its entirety.

21 Process for enactment of Regulations

- (1) A proposal for a Regulation may be initiated by a Body of the Administration or any other person or body authorised by the Administration.
- (2) A proposed Regulation must undergo such legal, regulatory, expert and other review as may be appropriate having regard to its subject matter and must obtain any approval or agreement required by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City or other applicable legislation.
- (3) A proposed Regulation must be subject to public consultation in accordance with Article 36 of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City, unless an exception provided for by that Article applies.
- (4) A draft Regulation must be published for public consultation for the period determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Administration, having regard to the nature, complexity and urgency of the Regulation before submitting the draft Regulation to the Council for approval.
- (5) Before a Regulation is submitted for approval, material representations received during the public consultation must be considered and, where appropriate, reflected in the draft or in an accompanying consultation report.
- (6) Paragraph (4) does not apply where the need for immediate adoption of the Regulation is determined by considerations of the security, functioning or sustainable development of Alatau City in accordance with Article 36(13) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (7) Following completion of the applicable review and consultation requirements, a proposed Regulation must be submitted for approval to the Council or, where the relevant power has been delegated by the Council, to the Regulatory Commission.
- (8) The Administration may establish procedures and requirements relating to the preparation, review, consultation, submission and approval of Regulations, as well as other procedures relating thereto.

22 Process for enactment of Rules

- (1) A proposal for a Rule may be initiated by a Body of the Administration or any other person or body authorised by the Administration.
- (2) A proposed Rule must undergo such legal, regulatory, expert and other review as may be appropriate having regard to its subject matter and must obtain any approval or agreement required by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City or other applicable legislation.
- (3) A proposed Rule must be subject to public consultation in accordance with Article 36 of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City, unless an exception provided for by that Article applies.

- (4) Draft Rules must be published for public consultation for the period determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Administration, having regard to the nature, complexity, and urgency of the Rules, before submitting the Draft Rules to the Regulation Commission for approval.
- (5) Before Rules are submitted for approval, material representations received during the public consultation must be considered and, where appropriate, reflected in the draft or in an accompanying consultation report.
- (6) Paragraph (4) does not apply where the need for immediate adaptation of the Rules is determined by consideration of the security, functioning or sustainable development of Alatau City in accordance with Article 36(13) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (7) Following completion of the applicable review and consultation requirements, a proposed Rule must be submitted to the Regulatory Commission for approval.
- (8) The Administration may establish procedures and requirements relating to the preparation, review, consultation, submission and approval of Rules, as well as other procedures relating thereto.

23 Process for enactment of Orders

- (1) A proposal for an Order may be initiated by the Chief Executive Officer, a Body of the Administration or any other person or body authorised by the Administration.
- (2) A proposed Order must undergo such legal, regulatory, expert and other review as may be appropriate having regard to its subject matter and must obtain any approval or agreement required by the Constitutional Law on Alatau City or other applicable legislation.
- (3) A proposed Order must be subject to public consultation in accordance with Article 36 of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City, unless an exception provided for by that Article applies.
- (4) Draft Order must be published for public consultation for the period determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Administration, having regard to the nature, complexity, and urgency of the Order, before submitting the Draft Order to the Chief Executive Officer for approval.
- (5) Before the Order is submitted for approval, material representations received during the public consultation must be considered and, where appropriate, reflected in the draft or in an accompanying consultation report.
- (6) Paragraph (4) does not apply where the need for immediate adaptation of the Order is determined by consideration of the security, functioning or sustainable development of Alatau City in accordance with Article 36(13) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (7) Following completion of the applicable review and consultation requirements, a proposed Order must be submitted to the Chief Executive Officer for enactment.
- (8) The Administration may establish procedures and requirements relating to the preparation, review, consultation, submission and enactment of Orders, as well as other procedures relating thereto.

24 Registration of Regulatory Legislative Acts

The Administration must maintain a register of Regulatory Legislative Acts. Each Act must be assigned a unique registry number upon enactment in accordance with the registration procedure approved by the Administration.

25 Commencement of Regulatory Legislative Acts

A Regulatory Legislative Act commences on the date specified in the Act, which must not be earlier than the date of its official publication, unless the Constitutional Law on Alatau City expressly permits otherwise.

26 Publication of Regulatory Legislative Acts and Regulatory Material

- (1) A Body of the Administration must publish on the Administration's internet resource electronic versions of any Regulatory Legislative Act and Regulatory Material adopted by it, whether as originally adopted or as amended and restated.
- (2) Every Regulatory Legislative Act must be published in Kazakh, Russian and English on the Administration's internet resource. It may additionally be published on any other platform designated by the Administration.

27 Entry into Reference Control Bank

- (1) Regulatory Legislative Acts must be entered into the Reference Control Bank of Regulatory Legal Acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan in accordance with Article 36(11) and (12) of the Constitutional Law on Alatau City and the procedure established by the Administration.
- (2) The text of the Regulatory Legislative Act or Regulatory Material published on the Administration's web resource and entered into the Reference Control Bank must be identical and must remain identical at all times.
- (3) The text entered in the Reference Control Bank must correspond to the published text.

28 Amendment of Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) A Regulatory Legislative Act may be amended by the Body that has authority to enact an Act of that type or by another Body expressly authorised to do so under the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), if a Regulatory Legislative Act requires amendment, it must be amended and restated in its entirety.
- (3) Minor editorial or translation errors may be corrected without formal amendment provided that the legal effect of the Regulatory Legislative Act is not altered. An editorial amendment under this paragraph must be authorised by Chief Executive Officer or a duly authorised officer by the Chief Executive Officer, recorded in the register of Regulatory Legislative Acts and published together with a note identifying the correction and its date.
- (4) For paragraph (3), an editorial amendment is an amendment that updates or corrects—

- (a) a reference to, or to any provision of, any Regulatory Legislative Act or Regulatory Material; or
 - (b) spelling, punctuation, or the use (or non-use) of conjunctives, disjunctives or capitals; or
 - (c) numbers or paragraphs, or changes the order of definitions or other provisions; or
 - (d) the naming of any Regulatory Legislative Act or Regulatory Material; or
 - (e) a reference to a provision of any Regulatory Legislative Act or other instrument with a different form of reference to the provision; or
 - (f) changes the way of referring to or expressing a number, year, date, time, amount of money, quantity, measurement or any similar matter; or
 - (g) changes the form or layout; or
 - (h) updates a reference to the heading of a provision of any Regulatory Legislative Act; or
 - (i) a provision of any Regulatory Legislative Act that has expired or the operation of which is exhausted; or
 - (j) anything not forming part of the Regulatory Legislative Act or Regulatory Material, including for example, any table of contents (however described), footnote or endnote; or
 - (k) is consequential on any other editorial amendment.
- (5) Any Regulatory Legislative Act or Regulatory Material amended under this Article, takes effect in accordance with Article 25.

29 Repealing Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) Regulatory Legislative Acts must be repealed by the Body of the Administration that enacted it or a superior Body of the Administration.
- (2) A Regulatory Legislative Act may be repealed or suspended only by an Act having the same or superior legal effect and enacted by a Body authorised to enact an Act of that level. The repealing or suspending Act must expressly identify the affected Act and the effective date of repeal or suspension.

Chapter 3 – Interpretation Provisions

30 Interpretation of Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) A Regulatory Legislative Act must be interpreted consistently with the Constitution of the Republic of Kazakhstan and the Constitutional Law on Alatau City and, so far as its wording permits, in the manner that best gives effect to the purpose and tasks of the Special Legal Regime.
- (2) Any inconsistency between the legislation of Alatau City and other legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan must be resolved in accordance with the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.

31 References in Regulatory Legislative Acts

- (1) A reference in a Regulatory Legislative Act to an Article, Part, Chapter or Schedule by number only, and without further identification, is a reference to the Article, Part, Chapter or Schedule of that number in the Regulatory Legislative Act.

- (2) A reference in an Article or other division of a Regulatory Legislative Act to a paragraph, subparagraph, sub-subparagraph, or Chapter by number or letter only, and without further identification, is a reference to the paragraph, subparagraph, sub-subparagraph or Chapter of that number or letter contained in the Article or other division of Regulatory Legislative Act in which that reference occurs.
- (3) A reference to another relevant Regulatory Legislative Act includes the relevant Regulatory Legislative Act as originally adopted, and as amended from time to time since it was originally adopted.

32 Material that is not a part of a Regulatory Legislative Act

- (1) The following do not form part of a Regulatory Legislative Act—
 - (a) headings, footnote, endnote or other note;
 - (b) a table of contents or index; and
 - (c) an official clarification published in accordance with Article 36.
- (2) Anything mentioned in paragraph 32(1) is explanatory material.

33 Application of definitions

- (1) A definition in the Glossary (Schedule 1) to any Regulatory Legislative Act applies to the entire Regulatory Legislative Act, and only to the Regulatory Legislative Act, unless the Regulatory Legislative Act or any other Regulatory Legislative Act provides for the definition to have a different application.
- (2) A definition in an Article/Part/Chapter of a Regulatory Legislative Act applies to the entire Article/Part/Chapter, and only to the Article/Part/Chapter, unless the Regulatory Legislative Act provides for the definition to have a different application.

34 Effect of examples

- (1) An example in a Regulatory Legislative Act—
 - (a) is not exhaustive; and
 - (b) may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the Legislative Regulatory Act or the particular provision of the Regulatory Legislative Act to which it relates.

35 Time periods

- (1) This Article applies in working out a period of 1 day or longer for the purposes of a Regulatory Legislative Act, whether the period is a period in the future or past.
- (2) A period of time described as commencing, on or with a stated day, act or event includes the stated day or the day of the stated act or event.
- (3) A period of time described as commencing from or after a stated day, act or event does not include the stated day or the day of the stated act or event.

- (4) A period of time described as ending at, by, on or with, or as continuing to, a stated day, act or event includes the stated day or the day of the stated act or event.
- (5) A period of time described as ending before a stated day, act or event does not include the stated day or the day of the stated act or event.
- (6) A reference to a number of days between acts or events does not include the day when the acts or events happen.
- (7) If a period of time would otherwise expire on a day that is not a working day, the period expires at the end of the next working day.
- (8) For the purposes of this Article, “working day” means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or public holiday in the Republic of Kazakhstan applicable in Alatau City.

36 Official clarification

- (1) The Administration may issue an official clarification of a provision of the legislation of the City of Alatau where—
 - (a) a question arises as to its meaning;
 - (b) differing interpretations have been adopted; or
 - (c) inconsistency has arisen in its application.
- (2) An official clarification issued under this Article is binding.
- (3) Where a provision of the Special Legal Regime Legislation is capable of more than one interpretation, the interpretation that best gives effect to the purpose and objectives of the Special Legal Regime is to be preferred.
- (4) An official clarification must be published on the Administration’s internet resource and entered in the register of Regulatory Legislative Acts.

PART 3: SPECIAL LEGAL REGIME OF ALATAU CITY

37 Continuity of existing acts

- (1) Any act or other instrument made or issued by a Body of the Administration before the commencement of these Regulations and in force immediately before their commencement continues to have effect according to its terms until it expires, is amended, replaced or repealed by a competent Body of the Administration.
- (2) An instrument referred to in paragraph (1) is not invalid solely because it was made or issued before the commencement of these Regulations or because its form or the procedure by which it was made or issued does not comply with a requirement introduced by these Regulations.
- (3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) do not preserve any provision of an instrument to the extent that it is inconsistent with the Constitution of the Republic of Kazakhstan or the Constitutional Law on Alatau City.
- (4) Nothing in these Regulations affects any right, obligation, liability, decision, approval, authorisation or other legal effect arising under an instrument continued in force under paragraph (1).

38 Ongoing procedures

- (1) Any procedure for the preparation, consideration, consultation, approval or adoption of an act or other instrument that commenced before the commencement of these Regulations may continue and be completed as if these Regulations had not commenced.
- (2) The Body of the Administration responsible for that procedure may instead determine that the procedure, or any remaining part of it, is to be conducted in accordance with these Regulations.

39 References to existing acts and instruments

- (1) A reference in any act or other instrument to an act or instrument continued under Article 39 is to be construed as a reference to that act or instrument as amended, replaced or otherwise continued from time to time, unless the context requires otherwise.

40 Further transitional arrangements

- (1) A Regulatory Legislative Act may make such further transitional, savings or consequential provisions as are necessary or appropriate in connection with its commencement or the transition to the legislative framework established under the Constitutional Law on Alatau City and these Regulations.
- (2) Until the procedures and requirements referred to in Articles 21(8), 22(8) and 23(8) come into effect, the Chief Executive Officer may, by Order, establish temporary procedures and requirements for the preparation, review, consultation, submission and approval or enactment, as applicable, of Regulations, Rules and Orders. Any such Order shall cease to have effect upon the commencement of the relevant procedures and requirements.
